

IN THE PRESS MARIE CLAIRE

LIFESTYLE NEWS

TOO COOL FOR SCHOOL
For a quirky alternative to traditional wall art, we love these retro pennants, $79 each, from Pony Rider.

SPACE SAVER
Trade in your oversized vacuum for the Dyson DC26, $599. Made with apartment living in mind, it boasts the power of a larger model without taking up too much of your valuable shoe space.

MAKE A WISH
To celebrate 60 years of Hans Wegner's iconic Wishbone chair, the manufacturers have deviated from the classic wooden finish in favour of a range of striking colours, $1810 each, from Corporate Culture.

MOTHER EARTH
Made from renewable and recyclable materials, this stylish Pod cot, $2099, from ubabub, not only cares for your little one - and the planet - but is also easily transformed into their very first bed.

PUSH ON
Featuring streamlined, lightweight designs and chic colours, Tokyo Bike offers a great range of back-to-basics bicycles, like the Bisou (right), $770, which are perfect for urban living.

OVER THE RAINBOW
Colourful British fashion designer Paul Smith has lent his passion for striking hues to create a limited-edition range of Stelton's Arne Jacobsen Cylinda-Line tableware, from $350.

WE LOVE THIS 100 PER CENT ORGANIC COTTON CANVAS AIRMAIL TOTE, $39.95, FROM APPLE & BEE

www.marieclaire.com.au 395

PAGE

395

ISSUE

SEPTEMBER 2010

Made from renewable and recyclable materials, this stylish Pod cot, $1899, from ubabub, not only cares for your little one - and the planet - but is also easily transformed into their very first bed.

