WOODLAND WORLD
OUR MY STYLE BLOGGERS GO ON THE HUNT FOR FABULOUS FOREST CRITTERS SO YOU CAN ADD SOME FUN TO YOUR TOT'S ROOM

As the weather cools down and the kids start to stay indoors more, it's a good time to rethink their home environment. Creating a safe, stimulating space for your child can be done without compromising on good looks. Work with a simple, white wall palette, add a few themed accessories and you've got a fresh look that can be easily changed and updated as you wish.

With autumn in mind and using neutral tones, My Child has drawn inspiration from the woods of the Northern Hemisphere to create a fun and beautiful look for your child's nursery or bedroom. Think Wind in the Willows and The Fantastic Mr Fox. These wonderful pieces have personality and pizzazz – and will add subtle charm to any room. The kids won't be the only ones to fall in love with this gathering of little forest friends.
